

Kiwi Climbers products are not for life support in any situation. They are purely climbing aids to support various aspects of tree climbing.

- New Zealand Climbers Limited also known as Kiwi Climbers, it's directors, officers, employees, contractors and manufacturers accept absolutely no responsibility for loss, damage, injury or death incurred when using any KK product.
- The purchaser or primary user agrees to use KK products at their own risk and hold the responsibility of the risk to any person they lend, gift or sell the products to. KK will only deal with the purchaser once items have left our possession.
- KK encourages feed back and will endeavour to rectify any craftsmanship / manufacturing issues in the first 12 months from sale date but is not obliged to replace, fix or refund.
- Fitting a Kiwi Climbers product to another product is a modification. The product's manufacturer will not recommend or hold any responsibility for use of it's products after modification